

Is your Intranet ready for 2012?

Free informal Intranets Forum meeting for UKeiG members to be held at:

Lawrence Graham LLP
4 More London Riverside
London SE1 2AU

Thursday 29th April 2.30 – 4.30 pm

Martin White, Managing Director of Intranet Focus Ltd., will speak about what actions you should be taking to ensure that your intranet is ready to be fully supportive of your organisation in 2012 – the year of the London Olympic Games, and when hopefully the UK economy will be responding to whatever actions the new Parliament takes.

There are some interesting technology developments that will need to be taken into consideration, including the opportunities offered by SharePoint 2010 and the use of the new generation of smart phones to provide remote access to intranet resources.

After the presentation, Brunella Longo will share some information about recent initiatives for using wikis for intranets.
